Typical credit load per course	3-4 hours per week (contact hours).

Standard number of semesters for completion of BA	10 semesters (5 years), the students have to complete 209 credits. Students who pursue the Bachelor Degree in Law must complete 257 credits in 6 years. Students who pursue the Bachelor Degree in Psychology must complete 237 credits in 6 years.
Credit system	One ULima credit is equivalent to one hour of taught classes a week throughout the semester, or two hours a week of practical classes. The semester has 14 weeks of classes. Courses could have from 2 to 4 credits depending on the level of difficulty. The ULima credit is different from an ECTS credit. Some European partners use this equivalence: 1 ULima credit = 1.5 ECTS.
Grading system at Universidad de Lima	The grading system ranges from 0 to 20; any grade under 11 is considered a failed mark. Grades are organized as follows: mid-semester exam (30%), academic performance-homework (30%), and final exam (40%). The academic performance totals the sum of different quizzes such as group works, research projects, exercises, and class participation.
