Information Sheet for Incoming Students 2021-2022

Contact information for Incoming Students

Full name of the receiving institution & description	CY CERGY PARIS UNIVERSITÉ On January 1st, 2020, the formerly institution called Université de Cergy-Pontoise becomes CY Cergy Paris Université with its merging with the School of Engineering EISTI, the COMUE Paris Seine (a cluster of universities and institutions of higher education). The newly created university also integrates two graduate schools ILEPS (sport and education) and EPSS (social work). The ESSEC Business School is a strategic partner in this project. Our new institution aims at achieving a double change of scale in accordance with the objectives of sustainable development, that is to say: academic standing and student experience. CY Cergy Paris University is now an international attractive center of training and research which hosts international students interested in studying in France. And thanks to its collective dynamism and its centre of gravity located at the heart of the youngest department of France, CY Cergy Paris Université is firmly focused on the future of an international and diversity-oriented university that is also focused on society.
