ASIAN STUDIES PROGRAM

Kansai Gaidai University

Established in 1972, the Asian Studies Program today annually welcomes about 800 competitively selected students who represent about 40 countries and regions.

SPECIAL FEATURES

01 | Superb Location

Kansai Gaidai is located in the city of Hirakata in Osaka prefecture. Located midway between Osaka, Japan's second largest metropolis, and Kyoto, the ancient capital of Japan (both cities accessible by train within 30 minutes), Kansai Gaidai's campus is in the commercial and cultural heart of Japan. It is an excellent starting point to explore Japan.

02 | Academic Calendar

The Asian Studies Program follows a typical academic calendar of overseas institutions in the northern hemisphere:

03 | 70+ Courses Offered in English

Course Offerings

In addition to Japanese language courses, a wide variety of content-based courses from social sciences to business is available in English providing the deeper understanding of Japan and Asia from many different perspectives.

Mandatory

Japanese Language courses
Level 1 to 8

Elective

Japanese Reading & Writing
Level 1 to 8

NEW DEVELOPMENTS AND OPPORTUNITIES

ASP HOME-BASED PROGRAM

(ONLINE ASP COURSES)

The "ASP Home-Based Program" offers semester-long credit based online courses at a reasonable cost. It is designed to provide students from all over the world an opportunity to learn about Japanese language and various aspects of Japan and Asia. The courses are offered in a combination of synchronous and asynchronous formats to provide the most effective online study. It can be an excellent opportunity to prepare for future study abroad or even work in Japan or Asia.

ONLINE SUMMER PROGRAM

The Online Summer Program is a short, but effective means to begin Japanese language studies and/or learn about Japan and its culture. All courses are taught by experienced faculty members who are willing to share knowledge from their expertise through accelerated instruction.

To help experience interactions with local students, student-driven events are offered during the Program.

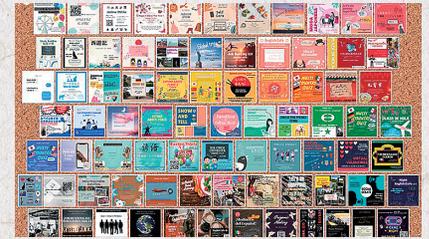

INTERCULTURAL ENGAGEMENT PROGRAM

(IEP)

This is a new semester based initiative created during the Covid-19 pandemic. The Intercultural Engagement Program is operated solely by students who are willing to take leadership in organizing and offering various opportunities to enhance interactions between local and international students. It now includes many events and projects conducted online and on-site. Take full advantage of this opportunity to connect with students all over the world.
