

WBS Information Sheet Winter Semester 2020-2021

Dates and locations are subject to change

The exceptional circumstances due to the spread of the corona virus request on the one hand sufficient freedom to react with regard to everyone's health protection, on the other hand the creation of reliable framework conditions, especially for our exchange students and partners. To meet these demands we will focus on a flexible adaption of the semester dates and the organization of teaching, studies and examinations.

We are aware that there are many open questions that cannot be answered at present, but we are making every effort to work out solutions as quickly as possible and will communicate them transparently.
