Welcome guide

Information for your stay at the University of Deusto

Dear student,

It is an honour for me to welcome you to the University of Deusto- a university that strives to blend contrasting features: our local roots and global challenges, knowledge from a historical perspective and concern for the future, leadership and social commitment, intellectual rigour and experience-based learning, competition and cooperation, tradition and innovation.

Deusto will be your educational community for an important period of your life, and we trust that Deusto Educational Model, which was designed having students in mind, will help you develop your entrepreneurship and creative potential as you study, make key decisions, take part in teamwork and make commitments concerning your future and the persons around you.

We aim to ensure that your Deusto experience is rewarding in every way, from relationships with classmates and lecturers to our administrative and services staff. We hope that you will find it fulfilling to be part of our diverse academic community, with people from over eighty countries. It will afford you a unique opportunity to broaden your horizons and explore your own ways of thinking, while learning how others see the world around us. We also hope that you make find friends and enjoy your stay in either Bilbao or San Sebastian.

We have carefully prepared this Guide for you, to make sure your time at the University of Deusto will contribute to your success in the near future and will be fondly remembered in the future. We are pleased to offer you the assistance of our highly qualified staff who can provide you with the inspiration and help you require during your stay at our Institution.

Our very best wishes for your present and future endeavours,

José María Guibert Ucin
Rector

Introduction

The University of Deusto was established in 1886.

Bilbao, a seaport and commercial city which was experimenting considerable industrial growth during that era, was chosen as the ideal location.

In September of 1997, the city underwent a significant transformation through a symbolic and emblematic building, Bilbao Guggenheim Museum. The central headquarters of the University of Deusto are located at the opposite side of the estuary, facing the Guggenheim Museum.

In 1916, Deusto Business School received the first group of students which would be the first graduates in Economic Sciences in Spain, 25 years before this degree was officially recognized.

In 1963, the Institute of University and Technical Studies of Guipuzcoa in San Sebastian was formed by the integration of three already-existing entities. This Institute, years later, became part of the University of Deusto.

Nowadays, the University is located on two campuses, in the two coastal capitals of the Basque Country: Bilbao and San Sebastian.

Internationalization, without excluding other regions, demonstrates a clear commitment to Europe and Latin America, having signed agreements with more than 200 universities.

With a mobility of approximately 1.300 students and 50 professors, the Faculties, Institutes and Schools are also implicated in intensive programs, European modules and joint curricular designs at various levels, at the same time as they participate in cross-border activities, integrated languages, ODL and Leonardo programs.

The entire University adopted the European credit system in the year 1994 and works to promote it and improve its quality.

UNIVERSITY GUIDANCE SERVICE

This service is aimed at all UD students. Our goal is to guide students in those aspects which may improve their learning and adaptation to university life. We regard Student guidance as being crucial not only as an information process, but also as a space of support and help in their decision-making that may affect their academic performance and personal well-being. Each lecturer obviously tries to ensure that students receive appropriate support and guidance. Thus, this Service is not intended to replace such an important role, but to complement it and promote it.

This Service is managed by a coordinator and a number of tutors in each Faculty or School, who will provide students with personal or group tutorial schemes.

E-mail: sou@deusto.es

ALDEZLE

Any member of the university community can address the claims about the operation of the University administrative bodies to Aldezle and request mediation efforts in university conflicts.

Living in Bilbao

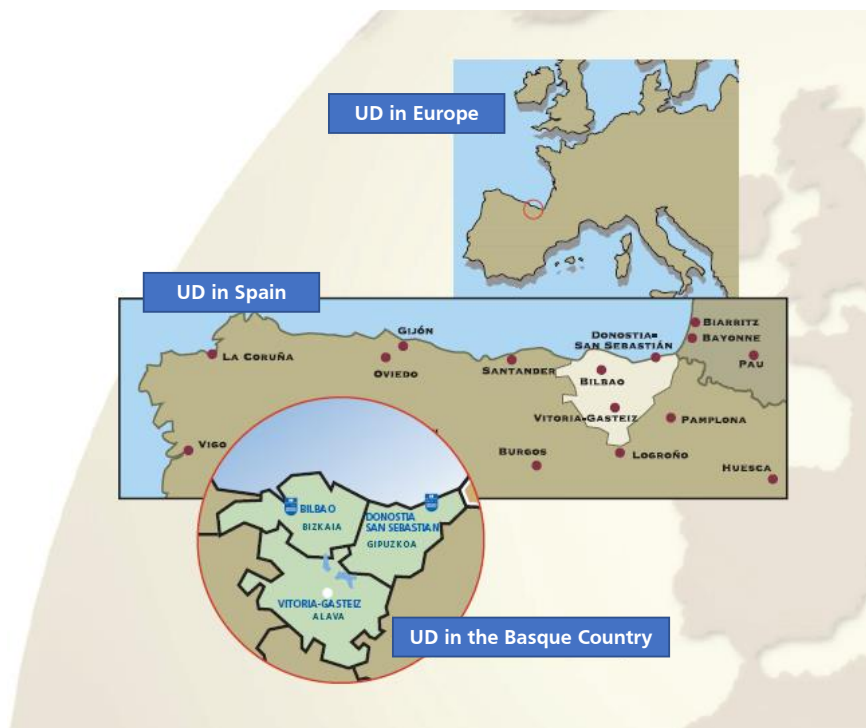

San Sebastian

Bilbao is the core of a metropolitan area with more than one million inhabitants.

Since its foundation, more than 700 years ago, it has been the fundamental factor and the main socio-economic axis around which the Bizkaia region has set its modernization process in motion.

San Sebastián is the capital city of the Basque province of Gipuzkoa.

Locals call themselves *donostiarra*s, both in Basque and Spanish. San Sebastian's picturesque coastline makes it a popular beach resort.

LANGUAGE

There are two official languages in the Basque Country: Basque (Euskera) and Spanish. Spanish is spoken by all of the inhabitants. Basque, which is used in a more limited manner, is the Basque Country's own original language. In the city, most signs and official publications are normally bilingual. Many Basque people speak French or English as well.

Dictionaries and online translators:

www.wordreference.com

<https://translate.google.es/>

Spanish Royal Academic Dictionary: www.rae.es

CLIMATE

The Basque Country has an oceanic type climate, humid on the coast and continental in land. The temperatures are mild throughout the year, with more frequent rain, during spring and autumn. The average temperature is 20° C in summer and 8° C in winter.

For beach goers, the average water temperature range 9°- 13 ° C in the winter months and 19°-22° C during the summer.

PERSONAL MEDICAL INSURANCE

EU citizens will need the European Health Insurance Card or a private insurance coverage.

Non-EU citizens will need a private insurance coverage in Spain. You may have to submit copies of these documents to the Embassy for your student visa application, as well as to our university.

Keep a copy with you while living and travelling abroad.

The usual procedure for medical assistance is that you contact your insurance service provider for a list of accepted medical providers located in your vicinity, you make arrangements directly with them and pay for the service and treatments up front, then submit your receipts and other documentation back to your insurance provider for a refund. Full procedures should be listed in your insurance documents.

The University of Deusto offers its students the possibility of hiring a private insurance arranged through seguros@deusto.es

Food Services

Supermarkets

Bilbao and San Sebastian have several supermarket chains and also smaller, individual stores (including ethnic grocery stores, which are mostly located in the neighborhood called San Francisco in Bilbao). Typically, supermarkets are open from Monday to Saturday and the majority of stores and malls are closed on Sunday. Although there is supermarket in Alameda Rekalde, 27 (Opencor) that stays open all days of the week 8:00 till 02:00.

Within the week, most of Public Institutions are closed for a few hours (from 13.30h to 16.30h, depending on the place), but you can find some small groceries which are open all day long within the whole week.

Prices in the Basque Country:

1 loaf of bread	€ 1,15
1 litre of milk.....	€ 0,90
1 kg. of rice.....	€ 1,50
1 litre of oil	€ 3.15
1 box of biscuits	€ 1,80
1 kg. of macaroni.....	€ 0.85

Bilbao and San Sebastian have a lot to offer to the typical food lover. One can find many types of cuisine here, such as Spanish, Basque, Asian, Vegetarian, Middle-Eastern, fast-food options...

In Restaurants during the day (13:00 - 16:00) you can order a "Menú del Día" which is a set of meals (first dish: salad or soup; second dish: meat, fish or pasta; with dessert and drink - usually all inclusive in price: € 9 - € 20)

In the Basque Country there is a tradition of pintxos/ tapas (€ 1,50 - € 3), the finger food usually made of bread and other ingredients. Pintxos are served basically all day long, and you can try them in most bars and cafes.

Prices at restaurants usually include service charges.

TIPS BEFORE YOUR ARRIVAL

Packing

Before leaving home, be sure to:

- Check luggage restrictions and weight limits: these differ depending airlines so please confirm with your airline or travel agent.
- Notify your bank and credit card company that you will be using your cards outside of your country: if your bank/credit card company is not made aware that you will be living abroad, foreign transactions could be seen as unusual and access to your accounts could be blocked.
- Update your dental care: We strongly recommend that you have all necessary dental care in your home country before leaving. The cost of dentist service in Spain is high and not normally included in your insurance coverage.

We recommend that you pack the original and, at least, 3 copies of the following documents:

- Passport and insurance
- Admission letters
- Scholarship documents and visa (if applicable)
- Apartment/Flat lease contract (if applicable), plus address.
- Several ID photos - white background size requirements: 4 cm length, 3 cm width (1.5/8" inch length, 1.1/4" inch width)

Also, we suggest you pack the following items:

- Electric current - In Spain, it is 220 AC in 50 cycles. Do not forget to bring plug adapters if needed. (picture is here: http://upload.wikimedia.org/wikipedia/commons/e/ef/Schuko_plug_and_socket.png)
- An unlocked mobile phone.
- Laptop, including an external hard drive for backup files storage.
- Home country banking details: Probably, you will be opening a new bank account in Spain. However, in case of emergency, you might want to use a credit card or Internet banking from your home country. Come prepared and with the knowledge of international rates for international banking. For example, check with your bank about the commission they charge when you withdraw cash in Spain. Be sure to notify your bank that you might be conducting banking in Spain over the course of your study time. Sometimes, credit cards work overseas only when you notify your bank.
- Prescription/medication: Check with your airline about medication restrictions. Prescriptions from other countries are not always accepted into the EU but your doctor in Spain can rewrite them for you. However, please note that brands vary from country to country, so you might not obtain the same medication as you are used to. Wherever possible, bring a supply of the prescriptive drug you need to last your entire stay. Obtain a doctor's prescription or note for any prescription drugs you are bringing with you in order to permit smooth customs inspection. Also check if you have any medical documents you should show doctors in Spain.
- Extra contact lenses or prescriptions from your eye doctor: Buying contact lenses and eyeglasses is costly and you will not receive any medical coverage for this type of health care.
- Raincoat, umbrella, sturdy shoes, boots and/or sneakers: These will serve for hiking, for cycling and walking. Spain is a beautiful country for day-hikes.
- Warm clothes: Jackets, sweater, scarves, thermal underwear, socks, gloves, etc... Or you can purchase them here at a cheaper price if you watch out for sales and promos or if you get them in flea markets.

- Euro: we highly recommend bring some Euro currency. Although you can exchange your currency into Euro at any Spanish bank or at the airport, it's convenient to have at least your first 100 Euro on hand. Also, don't forget to bring enough cash for your first months' rent, plus deposit.

* Note: There are very few oriental markets where you can purchase basic Chinese, Thai, Indian, and Middle Eastern food ingredients in case you want to buy some typical spices from your home country.

Expected budget for your first month in Spain is €1.060 approximately.

This would include:

- ✦ First month's rent € 350
- ✦ Rent deposit € 350 (to be returned at the end of the stay)
- ✦ Mobile phone SIM card (optional) € 20
- ✦ Monthly transportation pass (optional) € 30
- ✦ Internet service (optional) € 60
- ✦ Supermarket food € 250
